Understanding prime

Prime

A place of optimized performance and organizational health

When you experience prime

Prime (noun): A state or time of greatest strength, vigor or success

Your organization is more:

- Viable
- Stable
- Sustainable
- Profitable
- Valuable
- Resilient
- Transferable

The 7 components of prime

Prime is a state of optimization, performance and health, where all seven components of the organization are working together to generate organizational velocity and momentum.

Life cycle of an organization

Understanding prime within a life cycle

Growing pains: Transitioning from an entrepreneurship to a professionally managed firm. San Francisco: Jossey-Bass. Hoover, R. The organizational change grid. (1970). Cincinnati: Management Design Institute. Entrepreneur Trap

- The guiding vision of the founder/owner has not been institutionalized.
- The founder/owner has not relinquished power and control of the business.
- Early sales success has disguised the critical need for strategic brand development.
- A true marketing discipline is missing and functions early as business development.
- Professional leadership has not been hired in highly technical positions.
- The organization is changing too quickly causing fragmentation, alignment and morale issues.

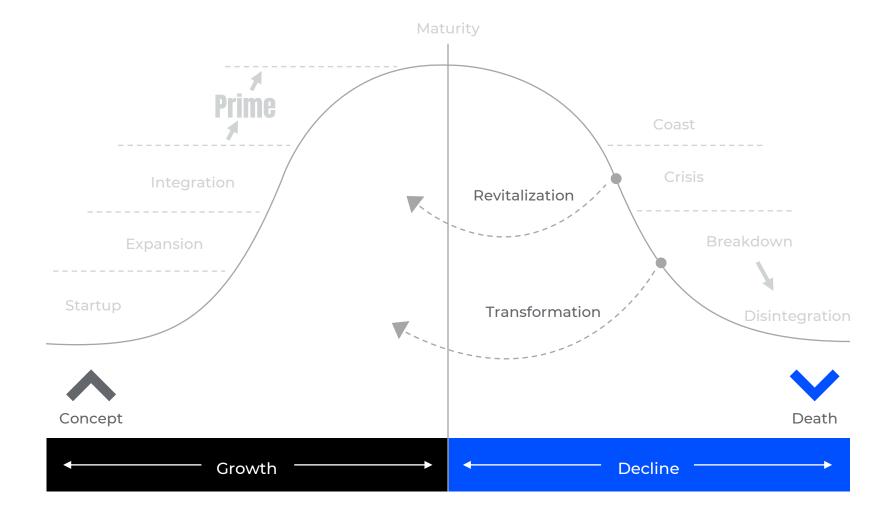

Growth Trap

- Managers are hired to run functional departments when executive leaders are needed to guide and initiate new strategies.
- The company outgrows the capacity of its early leadership.
- Creativity and innovation becomes stagnant due to early rapid growth.
- Profit margin is sacrificed for maintaining sales volume.
- The founder/owner under or over-functions and lacks a clear role in the organization.
- Targeting and key messaging gets little attention as sales continue to grow.
- Researching the needs of the client is disregarded.

Success Trap

- Success fosters stagnant leadership and organizational complacency.
- The company is not strategic and intentional about creating a new future state in the midst of success.
- Owners want financial pay-back early at the expense of the business.
- Talented leaders and managers needed to create long-term sustainable growth are not added to the business.
- Brands are not refreshed and new pieces of business are not added to the business development pipeline.
- Fatigue is exhibited in observable business behaviors of the employees.

Successful Strategic Planning for Prime

- A continuous process, not an event, and critical to long-term success
- Plans are living documents and require a strategic mindset
  - ► The plan is only one part of the process
  - The process helps invigorate and strengthen organizations
- Leadership teams need to keep the plan active, agile, and current
